

Equipment. Shelving for the new room was purchased by the Directors during the summer; also linoleum for the new room, seven chairs and a small broom truck. From the proceeds of a card party a new Library table was purchased. Shades for the new room were donated by Mr. Barry, and a handsome hat tree and plants were given by Mrs. Hiller.

Subscribers. Our efforts to secure additional memberships to the Library Association resulted in 10 sustaining members and 15 active members. 44 books have been purchased for members.

Books issued. As has been reported by Mr. Hiller, there has been a marked growth in the number of loans and list books issued, showing a serious trend in the thought of borrowers.

During the last few months there has been a slight decrease in the issue of juvenile books, owing to the addition of small libraries in the graded schools. However, the total number of books issued continues to increase daily, as well as the number of borrowers.

Donations. The donation of books and magazines to the Library has been generous, and the shelves are gradually being filled.

Mrs. Margaret Lee has donated to the Library from two to six books a month for over a year. As she is not a member of the Library Assn., may I suggest that a note of appreciation be sent to her?

Although we cannot at present fully supply the demand for new books, it is hoped that in the near future sufficient funds may be available for this purpose.

The State Library officials, and Mr. Woodruff of the Scranton Public Library, have kindly co-operated in sending books on special
